Terms and Conditions

Read the Nationwide Children's MyChart Terms and Conditions.

Click Accept or Decline as appropriate.

To proceed, you must agree to the following conditions governing the use of this Web site.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

Nationwide Children's Hospital is pleased to offer you, Matt Test, information via a Web-based version of our computer charting system called MyChart. MyChart is not a complete copy of the patient's medical record. It is a subset of some information which the patient might find helpful. Access to MyChart is not a right, but a privilege. Nationwide Children's Hospital reserves the right to revoke access at any time for any reason. The following Terms and Conditions of Use govern your access to and use of MyChart. You must agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions of Use in order to access and use MyChart.

Response to Electronic Communication - MyChart should never be used for urgent matters. For all urgent matters, please contact your physician's office by telephone, go to an emergency room, or dial 9-1-1.

Nationwide Children's Hospital will make its best effort to provide a timely response to electronic inquiries. In some cases, Hospital staff who need to respond to an electronic inquiry or other communication may not be immediately available, so a patient should allow at least two (2) business days for a response.

If your provider is out of the office or unavailable, messages sent via MyChart may be routed to other authorized caregivers within Nationwide Children's Hospital in order to facilitate a timely response to your request.

No Activation Code?

New to MyChart and you do not have a MyChart Activation Code:

- Please request a MyChart Activation Code during your next visit.
- You may also Request New Code Online through the Sign Up Now page. However, your access may be limited until your identity can be verified.

Note: Activation code must be used within 180 days after issue date or it will expire. The same applies to the activation email.
